

Devon ladies squash cup final

Newton Abbot v Torquay - Wednesday 26 March 2014

The finals of the ladies cup were played at Newton Abbot on Wednesday 26 March. It was an excellent match between Newton Abbot and Torquay. There was a lot of very good squash played. The match was also played with good spirit helped by the large number of spectators. It was good to see some new younger keen players such as Loren Smith and Vicky Evans playing so well – potential county players of the future.
